

JOB TITLE: Financial Analyst

Jones Soda Co. is a Seattle-based premium beverage company whose brands include Jones Soda, Jones Naturals, Jones Energy, Jones Organics and Whoopass. A leader in the premium soda category, Jones is known for its innovative labeling technique that incorporates always-changing photos sent in from consumers. Jones is renowned for its guerilla marketing techniques; popping up in creative places just to get soda into the hands of Jones fans. Jones is also known for creating unique flavors like Turkey & Gravy and Smoked Salmon along with all-time favorites, Blue Bubble Gum and Green Apple. Jones Soda is sold through beverage retailers and everywhere you'd never expect to find a soda.

Reporting directly to the Director of Management Accounting, the Financial Analyst will be primarily responsible for the following objectives:

- Preparation of management reports and other internal reports
- Prepare annual consolidated budget
- Preparation and analysis of budget and actual variances
- Preparation of annual projections and forecasts
- Analysis and reporting of trade spending and promotion allowances
- Documentation and testing effectiveness of internal controls
- Other duties or assignments as required by the Director of Management Accounting or CFO

Qualifications

- BA in Business, preferably with an emphasis in Finance and Accounting
- Good understanding of accounting concepts and processes
- Excellent communication skills
- Advanced skills in Microsoft Office applications, including Excel and Word
- Ability to multi-task while maintaining a high degree of accuracy
- Good interpersonal and analytical skills
- Minimum 2 – 5 years of related experience
- ACCPAC experience is a plus, or good working knowledge of accounting software packages

Candidates must be authorized to work in the US without sponsorship.

All applicants must submit a cover letter and resume.

Qualified applicants may apply via www.jonessoda.com or by submitting a resume directly to jobs@jonessoda.com. The subject line of the email must read: Financial Analyst.

No hard copies accepted.

Come Run with the Little Guy!