

TIME Classroom

SUBSCRIBE
CUSTOMER SERVICE
MAGAZINE ARCHIVE

Search

HOME | TFK IN CLASS | WORLD REPORT | NEWS SCOOP | BIG PICTURE | REPRODUCIBLES | ABOUT TFK

November 1, 2002 Vol.8 No.7

Backstage at the Zoo

- Inside this Issue
- Reproducibles
- News Scoop Guide

- News Scoop Quiz

This Week's Standards

- Learn more about News Scoop
- News Scoop Archives

Who's News: Mitchie Brusco

PRINTER FRIENDLY

Mitchie Brusco was 3 years old when he first climbed on a skateboard. Now, at 5, he is one of the country's top young skateboarders! Mitchie, who lives in Kirkland, Washington, is known to his fans as Little Tricky. He is the youngest competitor in this year's Gravity Games, an extreme-sports competition. Mitchie has mastered kick flips and ollies. His next trick? Learning to tie his shoelaces before he starts kindergarten!

- Send this story to a friend
- November 1, 2002 News Scoop

National Student Publishing Awards

Information and Entry Form >>

Haven't subscribed yet?

Order TIME For Kids now!

- New Order
- Renew subscription
- About TFK

• Teacher Email Newsletter Preview issues and get more resources

• 10 Important Research Findings- Impact of TIME For Kids

• 2003-2004 Sponsored Programs/TFK Extra!- Student magazines & teaching materials

• TIME For Kids Almanac 2004- Order today

Explore different countries!

Go Places with TFK magazine

Less than $1 per student

Use TFK as part of BOOK IT!

